DULIN & MARTIN CO.

Woodward & Lothrop,

New York-WASHINGTON-Paris.

ATE are showing a large and attractive line of this durable and effective furniture, including Chairs, Rockers and Tables. $3.90 to $15.00 the piece.

This Chair, $12.50.

Sixth floor-G st.

Most Women

-use perfume. A great many use THOMPSON'S DOUBLE COLOGNE. More would prefer it were they acquainted with its delicate, yet lasting fragrance. 25c up * Thompson Pharmacy Frank C. Hanry, Prop., 703 15th St.

Whist Sets, Playing Cards,

The whist season is here-our assortment of be equalled in the city.

Expert Engraving -in the new Tiffany styles at moder-

THE GOTHAM SHOP

Trouland & Kundahl 1411 F Street

Quality Tailoring big reductions, as we expect to the want to want the reduction. The beginning the published with the catalogue of the published to show you the weet. We are making big reductions, as we expect to move. We would be pleased to show you the newest

J. KEROES,

"Full-dress Suits for Hire."

"Watch this sign daily."

"Sweet Home." HAYES-SHARP REALTY CO.

THERE IS REALITY IN OUR REALTY."

CREDIT TO ALL

Watches, Diamonds, anything in the Jewelry line. Easy payments. Open evenings

S. H. BERMAN. 1721 Pennsylvania Ave.

"NO CREAM TASTES LIKE FUSSELL'S."

Quality

M. T. FUSSELL. 1427 New York Ave. 'Phone M. 1513.

at a reasonable price is good Women whose tastes agree with those who are accustomed

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.

Advertisers in The Herald

Are getting good re-turns from their investments. An ad. this size. rate, costs only a dol-

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Miss Erma Shaw to Make Her Debut Next Month.

ENJOYS UNIQUE DISTINCTION

Circle-Novelty in Debntante Entertainments Planned to Introduce of Nurses' Home Gives Recital,

With the return of Mrs. Shaw, wife of Mrs. William A. Slater has issued in-Washington about December 15.

years ago, is a college girl of quiet tastes who has supplemented her education by two European visits of considerable Woman's College in Baltimore.

She is fond of out-door life and sport, and has just returned from a round of lightfully entertained.

will be of particular interest at this time, as she enjoys the distinction of being the only bud from the administration circle.

A novelty in debutante entertainments will be the tea to introduce Miss Juliette Williams, daughter of Maj. John R. Williams and Mrs. Williams, which is an-Chevy Chase Club.

ried people of smart society, who claim city. that the heads of these households and their men friends have not sufficient

Miss Williams, who is the eldest daughter of the family, is a handsome girl of blonde type, who has already seen something of society at an army post, but has only recently been graduated from a ashionable school near Baltimore,

The first of a long line of entertainments in which charity and fashion will unite, was held yesterday in the ball-room of the Arlington, where the mana-Paris, who is in Washington for a short gers of the Nurses' Home gave a violin, time. piano, and song recital in which the artists were Mrs. Cornelia Dyas White, Mrs. Dyas-Standish, Miss Louise Dyas.

The singing of Mrs. Dyas-Standish, who was heard to great advantage in a Whist Sets, Playing Cards and Games is not to group of songs embracing the work of Special to The Washington Herald. the large audience.

Randolph H. McKim, Mrs. M. Van Auken Mills. Mrs. Charles W. Needham, Mrs. Devis E. Payson, Mrs. Charles W. Richards and Son, Mrs. Henry G. Satterlee, Mrs. D. Were made in other masses, and these will UPPDPWC WILL HONOR HAVE

The First Needle Work Guild of Washington will hold its annual meeting on Friday morning at St. John's Parish Hall, 1332 G St. N. W. Sixteenth street, between H and I streets, at 11 o'clock, when a full attendance of members is requested, as, according to > one meeting of the guild each season, useful as well as least ostentatious, havng relieved the wants of thousands of

> The work is done by individual memrs of the guild at little expense and with the greatest amount of good to the recipient as well as for the donors. Mrs. Roosevelt, now numbers 600 mes, each individual contributing two new winter garments each year to the general fund. At last year's distribution

The newly appointed naval attache of he Brazilian Embassy, Lieut, Com. Raeeler de Aquino, will arrive in New York on Saturday from Brazil on the St. Louis, of the American Line. He will come directly to Washington, with Mme. de Aquino and their family.

A wedding of to-day, which although attracting parties, will be of interest to a large and sincere circle of friends and well wishers, will be that of Mrs. Sallie Vawter Harris to Mr. Theodore J. Pick-ett, which will take place at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Judge and Mrs. Milliken, 2027 in Virginia.

Massachusetts avenue. Mrs. Harris, although a resident of of the late Rev. Philomon Vawter, and the famous Russian author and reformer, through her mother a member of the namely a cure for the "ghetto" in the

Mr. Pickett is the son of the late Col-John T. Pickett, of Confederate fame, who was in the consular service of the nited States, and who held diplomatic nd military positions under the Conederacy. Col. Pickett accompanied Lopez o Cuba, and commanded the battle of rdenas. Mr. Pickett's grandfather was the late Col. James C. Pickett, who was an officer of the regular army during the war of 1812, was Judge Advocate of the army, and while serving as secretary of state for Kentucky, married Miss Desha. the daughter of the then governor of Kentucky. Later he was Minister to Peru and Colombia.

Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth are in New York for a short stay enroute for Farmington, Conn., where they will be the guests of Mrs. Longworth's aunt, Mrs. Cowles, wife of Rear Admiral Cowles. From Farmington they will go to Boston for the annual visit Mrs. Longworth always makes her maernal grandmother, Mrs. George C. Lee.

Mrs. Walter Farwell, of Chicago, who is now the guest of Miss Mattingly, on Q street, will pass the next two weeks in Washington, and also make a visit to New York before sailing with her husband for England, where they have taken a house at Melton Mowbery for the hunt-ing season. Mr. Farwell is at present on his estate in Texas, but will join his wife

Mrs. George von L. Mever, wife of the Ambassador to Russia, and future Post- Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers, master Ceneral, with their young daughters, is now at the country home of the family, at Hamilton, Mass., but will pass a part of the winter in Washington.

Senator and Mrs. Lodge have arrived at their Massachusetts avenue home for Miss MacVeagh, after passing the autumn at their estate near Philadelphia, have come to Washington for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed, EIGHTY, BUT EAGER AS A BOY who have been among the most distin-Only Bud from the Administration

Circle—Novelty in Debutante En-

Miss Hanna Taylor, of Washington, Miss Juliette Williams-Managers daughter of Hon. Hannis Taylor, former minister to Spain, is visiting Miss Mary Brady, at her home, 804 St. Paul street, he Secretary of the Treasury, and her vitations for the marriage of her daughtwo daughters, from their Iowa home, ter, Louise, to Mr. Thomas Camden Allen, comes the announcement that Miss Erma which will take place Tuesday, November Shaw will make her formal debut in 30, at 12 o'clock, at No. 119 Second street northeast. Miss Slater is formerly from This second daughter of the family, like Durham, N. C., and Mr. Allen from her sister, Miss Enid, a debutante of three Raleigh, N. C., but now he is employed a matter of course in the fourth vice president's office of the Southern Railway Company here in this daughter, Nellie Florence, and Mr. Frank Taylor Mitchell, on Wednesday evening, November 21, from 8:30 to 10. The marriage ceremony at 8 will be witnessed only visits to her old-time friends in the by the immediate relatives and friends West, where she and her sister were deightfully entertained.

Miss Erma Shaw's entrance into society

Hunter. Mr. Harry Allen will be best

> W. E. Wood, of the National, is now enjoying a short vacation in New York

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Sanborn celebrated their golden wedding at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Max Winkler, 140 Massaounced for Sunday, November 25, at the They were married fifty years ago at by which he will be remembered by pos-Chevy Chase Club.

While Sunday entertaining has become living—Sidney S., of Springfield, Mass.; is as eager as a boy to get to work on it, and will start for America in a couple of the barber turned to the sister and in-

Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver Moque and their men friends have not said their little daughter, voicia, have leisure to extend or accept hospitality during the week, the forthcoming tea in honor of Miss Williams will mark a dishonor of Miss Williams will mark a d their little daughter, Voleta, have been tinct departure in debutante affairs, both as to day and place.

has returned to the cay and will be as to day and place.

has returned to the cay and will be as to day and place.

Thirteenth

> Mrs. Frank J. Moses sails to-day for uba, where she goes to join her husband, Lieut. Col. F. J. Moses, at present mmand of the United States Marines

Mrs. Sutherland gave a small lunched

PASSES ON CHURCH MUSIC.

Commission Appointed by Cardinal Gibbons Makes Its Report.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.-The Catholic Ronald Schumann Hahn, Strauss, and Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—The Catholic Beach was particularly acceptable to music commission, appointed by Cardinal The recital was given under the patron- used in the arch-diocese of Baltimore, WILSON BACK FROM THE WEST.

Pure Food Law Questions Awaiting His Disposal. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson returned from his Western trip yesterday, Among the first matters he will be calle the plan of many years, there will be but upon to take up is the "reprimand" of Willis L. Moore, chief of the Weather In the sixteen years of its existence Bureau, ordered by President Roosevelt his particular charity is one of the most for violation of the civil service regulations. Mr. Moore was found guilty transferring a printer named Cooper from men, women, and children in supplying the printer's failure to pay his union dues. In moderate and reasonable quantities Just what form of censure will best fit just what form of censure will best fit. the weather chief's crime, the Secretary o persons who, without this agency, the weather chief's has not yet decided.

Secretary Wilson has a number of mat-ters relating to the pure food and meat new Hebrew edifice December 2. inspection laws that require his attenion. Numerous inquiries are being received soliciting interpretations of certain provisions of the pure food law, which will become effective January 1. The Secretary will recommend to Con-gress that an appropriation of $250,000 be general fund. At last year's distribution made to cover the enforcement of the law. No funds are available for the pursuanswered.

friendship for the race and his repeated a never-failing companion—it is his custom to take a vigorous daily walk.

WANTS HEBREWS TO FARM.

Proven Most Successful.

tended by great simplicity and witnessed Krauskopf, of Philadelphia, in a lecture at Secretary to be present, only by the immediate relatives of the con-United States.'

Dr. Krauskopf reviewed the many years of Mr. Hay, of struggle against bigotry and sect hatred, beginning with the intolerant Puritan fathers of New England, and ending with Jefferson's ultimate triumph

After the regular lecture the speaker changed his theme to a review of the

In spite of discouragement from promiin definand throughout the country, many often wondered why Pocahontas did no being employed by the United States Agricultural Department as experts.

The lecture was closed by an appeal to the Hebrews of Washington to raise suf ficient funds to send one deserving boy

Diamonds And Other Gems

-in the newest and most artistic mountings. Special pieces made to order from

GALT & BRO.,

Established Over a Century. 1107 Penna. Ave.

CHANCE FOR BODLEY JUSTICES OF THE

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne MacVeigh and Noted Architect to Make Cathedral His Masterpiece.

Works of His Art Scattered Throughand Has Published Volume of wants them. Verse-Honorary Member of the Institute of American Architects.

London, Nov. 13.—George Frederick Bod-atricals, and a small theater has been set tect, and when any notable church is to be restored or repaired he is consulted as The Chie

Scattered up and down the land are many churches that he has built. Among his most notable achievements are the new buildings of Magdalen College, Oxford, and King's College, Cambridge; length, having passed nearly a year in Mrs. Eleanor Rowe has issued invita-Paris since concluding her studies at the tions to the wedding reception of her ford, and King's College, Cambridge; Clumber Church, built for the Duke of Newcastle: Eccleston Church, built for the Duke of Westminster; the Chapel of Marlborough, and the restored screen of Winchester Cathedral, With the late

But never in his life has he had such an pportunity to display his skill and creative power as will be afforded him by the work with which he has been intrusted chusetts avenue northeast, yesterday, make it his masterpiece-the monument ular one who has long and beautiful weeks. It will be his first visit to that quired if she would not like to have her untry, but American architects are familiar with his work, as he is an honorary Architects, and many of his designs have before I have it cut like grandfather's." appeared at its exhibitions.

He is familiar with every cathedral and In the retirement from the Suprem hurch of importance in Europe. But his Court bench of Associate Justice Brown, ctivities and enthusiasm are by no a most picturesque and interesting pair-means restricted to his profession. Loves Music and Writes Verse.

As an antiquary his reputation stands lection as a royal academician.

guged in restoring. As they stood before the pulpit, Mr. Bodley said: "You had better have a scroll painted round that age of Mrs. Charles H. Ackert, Mrs. met to-night to render decisions.

The masses accepted were Turton's Missa Bell, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. E. K.

Solemniz, and the following masses of Bell, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. E. K.

Dr. McArdle pointed out that the nature brawn are assembled socially.

The masses accepted were Turton's Missa Bell, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. E. K.

Solemniz, and the following masses of Dr. McArdle pointed out that the nature brawn are assembled socially.

The familiar figure and fine face of Justice Brown is greatly missed by visitive better have a scroll painted round that. brawn are assembled socially

HEBREWS WILL HONOR HAY

Root to Attend Unveiling of Memorial Window in Philadelphia.

Straus, Also, Will Deliver Address at Presentation Planned as Tribute to Secretary's Friendship.

Secretary of State Root has accepted Keneseth-Israel Synagogue, Philadelphia, woman to be present at the formal presentation

Keneseth-Israel is the largest Hebrev congregation in the United States, and John Hay, because of his well-known out-door exercise, and with Mrs. Brown-

The action in placing a memorial in a the distance between their home in Six-Hebrew synagogue to the memory of a teenth street, on the corner of S, and the non-Hebrew is said to be without prece-dent. Secretar; Root, as Mr. Hay's suc-Eighteenth and F streets. They walk Dr. Kranskopf's Experiment Has cessor in office, will deliver a brief ad- at a brisk pace and if the sun is bright, an honorary degree. He has a wife and dress. Rev. Dr. Joseph Krauskopf, the the judge usually carries a green-lined two daughters living in this city. Roger Williams, Benjamin Franklin, and rabbi of the congregation, saw Mr. Root umbrella as a protection against the yesterday and made arrangements for the three great heroes of religious liberty in postponement of the ceremonies from If Justice Harlan takes pride in the an address upon that occasion eulogistic

John Smith and Pocahontas.

The many friends of Mrs. A. S. Green enthusiastic frequenter of the Chevy will be pleased to know that she will Chase links, and is famous for his long soon have published "The Love Story of John Smith and Pocahontas." Mrs. Green Washington for the past fifteen years, is a native of Kenjucky, being the daughter a plan suggested by Count Leo Tolstoi members of the D. A. R., and also of the plan suggested by Count Leo Tolstoi, members of the D. A. R., and also of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. namely: a cure for the "ghetto" in the Mrs. Green is working hard as the presiform of agricultural colleges to Leach dent of the Pocahontas Bell Association the young Hebrew to farm. A college has been opened in Bucks County, Pa., Jamestown Exposition, the Pocahontas which has achieved great success in Bell Association being an auxilliary or ganization to lend a helping hand to promote any individual or collective effornent Hebrews who declared their race fit in this direction. This little story will for nothing but the pursuit of a merchant be welcomed and appreciated by all who or banker, Dr. Krauskopf persisted in are looking for true history—woven by his efforts, and has been vindicated by Mrs. Green into the thrilling, romantic the results. Students of his college are story which explains to those who have

> Last Rites for Lieut. Col. Stouch. Hundreds of friends of the late Lieut. Col. George W. Stouch, U. S. A., retired, from this city to the farm college in followed his body to the grave yesterday afternoon from St. Margaret's Protestant Episcopal Church. The funeral was accorded all military honors. The pallbearers were Brig. Gen. Andrew S. Burt, retired; Brig. Gen. John J. O'Connell, retired; Col. Henry P. McCain, military secretary; Col. James T. Kerr, general staff; Maj. Henry Romeyne, retired, and Western Indians concerning birds. Lieut. William U. Williams, retired.

Theater Changes Its Charter. Papers were filed yesterday for the incorporation in the District of Columbia original and exclusive de- of the Lincoln Hall Association, which owns the Academy of Music. The capital stock of the concern is placed at $150,000.

The association has heretofore worked under a Virginia charter, which it will surrender. The change reasons of convenience. Are Your Rooms Vacant?

SUPREME BENCH.

The Chief Justice of the United States is an ideal grandfather. Not only does he feel the part, but he looks and acts it. His abundant hair, flowing mustache, and strongly marked brows are snowy white, exactly as a grandfather's should be.

In his delightful, roomy home, in the part of town once fashionably apportioned to the army and navy set, there are usually several grandchildren, come upon protracted visits, awaiting their parents return from abroad, or merely because out England-Is Devotee of Music the Chief Justice-who loves children-

The children always have the run of the mansion, and everything in the line of juvenile sport, from theatricals to amateur carpentry, has the hearty support of the Chief Justice.

ley, who has been chosen to design the up in the third story of the house where, new Protestant Episcopal Cathedral at oh Saturday nights, a brace of youngsters Washington, has long been regarded as England's foremost ecclesiastical architect, and when any notable church is to

The Chief Justice buys anything in the way of seats-box seats and seats for Scattered up and down the land are "men only," as well as orchestra circle

A story is told that a playmate of Chief Justice Fuller's grandchildren was present during a conversation that related to the personnel of the Supreme bench. When a grown-up remarked, "The Chief Thomas Garner he designed the cathedral Justice is the biggest man in the United in Tasmania, and the reredos in St. Paul's Cathedral.

Wants to Build Masterpiece.

States," this child interrupted: "Oh, no he isn't. If you are speaking of Melvilles much grandfather, I can tell you he is a much ing up. Why, I'm almost as tall as he is, myself." Another story is that a little grandat the American capital. He hopes to daughter of the Chief Justice-the partic-

"Oh, no," replied the little girl, "I member of the Institute of American much prefer to wait till my hair is white hair cropped in the fashionable "bob" known as the Damian and Pythias of the Law-will be missed from judicial and social circles this winter.

The two justices have been close friends high, and he has found time to write and for many years. They have homes in publish a volume of verses which has the same section of Washington, they been well received. Of music, he is pas- each have married a second wife, and sionately fond. Four years ago he re- they are not unlike in character and disceived the well-deserved recognition of position. Especially do their veins of humor run with the same rich blood, and He has many good stories to tell of his having been long associated together in experiences when engaged on architec- the public mind, they have come to be tural pilgrimages. Among the most amus-ing, perhaps, is that which relates to his meeting with the witty Dean of Brechin tells a story, it is apt to be a good-nameeting with the witty Dean of Brechin, tured dig at Judge Brewer, and when the which occurred in a church near Dundee, latter is called upon, it is Brewer's could be placed in the cablegram received Scotland, which the architect was enchance to get back at Brown. They yesterday announcing that Dr. Thompson eally do, for four long hours every day by his doctors to return to Washington,

"Well, madame," replied Judge Brown, and he had agreed. with a humorous twinkle of the eye that dark glasses failed to hide, "we spend the first hour trying to get at the mean-leave his hotel, and an operation was deing of the speech some lawyer is strug-gling with. We do not have to do this, of course, for the argument is before us in the printed brief; it is merely a habit. We occupy the second hour wondering how many times the lawyer is going to repeat himself. The third hour is about the time we take a nap, as comfortable a one as it is possible to get under the eyes of barristers and visitors, and the

Well, what do you do with the fourth the invitation of the congregation of hour, judge?" interrupted the pretty Judge Brown chuckled, and replied promptly "Why, the fourth hour-with the assistance of the pages-we devote to waking up!" Judge Brown is the most cheerful perits members in erecting a new synagogue son in the world. Under the affliction of decided to place in it a memorial window a severe eye trouble, he has never lost sible for them to reach their destination in honor of the late Secretary of State his optimism. He believes in plenty of The judge and his wife frequently make Western Hemisphere by Dr. Joseph November 25 to December 2, to enable the fact that he is the physical giant of le-The Rise of Religious Liberty in the Commerce and Labor, will also deliver on ever be seen in the company of his son, who is a second edition of his father. The two men are magnificent specimens of health and the justice attributes much of his physical fitness to golf. He is an

Over at the Army and Navy Club the other night, some one was recalling an incident that happened at a White House eception last winter. A group of eminent jurists and their wives were gathered in the Green Room when the Harlan family came through the line. The big Justice, in the lead, looked like some lighty Scottish chieftain, and a privileged confrere, imitating the playing of the bag-pipes, broke into a soft whistle of "The Campbells are Coming." The large, smiling justice was the first to hear and appreciate the joke, and has been since known to refer to his family

ORNITHOLOGISTS IN SESSION.

as the "clan."

Hear Address by Dr. Merriam at Evening Love Feast. The members of the Ornithologists' inion and their friends held a love feast last night at the Riggs House, which was followed by an informal reception. There were no toasts, but the guests listened to a twenty-five minute address by Dr. C. Hart Merriam, Chief of the United States Biological Survey, upon the myths of the

The first scientific session of this unio was held yesterday morning at the lecture hall of the National Museum, and was opened by an address by William Dutcher, of New York City, president of the National Audubon Societies, who made earnest plea on behalf of the killdeer He said that as an article of food it was too small to be considered, and that its indiscriminate slaughter for millinery parposes should be rigidly prosecuted. E. H. Forbush, of Wareham, Mass.,

The change was made for spoke at length upon the subject of "Some December 12; for a stereotype molder at Experiments With Nesting Boxes," and 56% cents an hour, on December 12; for gave a practical aid to his discourse by five fish culturists, at $600 and $540 a year, Insert a small ad. in The Herald under Rooms For Rent and you'll quickly secure good tenants. The charge is only one cent a word, gave a practical aid to his discourse by a series of stereopticon views. The sessions will continue all to-day at the lecture room of the museum.

gave a practical aid to his discourse by a series of stereopticon views. The sessions will continue all to-day at the lecture room of the museum.

gave a practical aid to his discourse by a series of stereopticon views. The sessions will continue all to-day at the lecture room of the museum.

White Sulphur Springs, Va.

Novelties in Electroliers.

SPECIAL feature of our present showing of Electroliers is an exceptionally complete line of the Duffner & Kimberly Co.'s rich and distinctive productions, for which we are exclusive Washington agents.

Many particularly handsome effects in Electroliers, representing Roman, Gothic, Mission, and modern styles. Designs of fifteen different periods are shown, including the Viking. Roman, Greek, Louis XV, Egyptian, &c.

Every piece embraced in this exhibit is characterized by richness, fine workman-ship, and exquisite color blending.

HE fact that these productions cannot be obtained elsewhere in this city will commend them to the attention of those desiring distinctively designed objects for gifts or home embellishment.

ETA descriptive booklet showing a number of these Electroliers, beau-tifully reproduced in colors, pre-sented gratis upon request.

Dulin & Martin Co.,

Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, &c.

1215 F Street and 1214-18 G Street

FEARS PHYSICIAN CANNOT LIVE

Son-in-law of Dr. Thompson Says Recovery Is Doubtful.

Dr. McArdle Declares Optimistic Reports Were Mislending, and that He Expects Bad News.

Dr. Thomas McArdle, son-in-law of Dr. Ford Thompson, the eminent Washingon physician, who was operated on in ondon last Monday for cancer of the stomach, said last night that no faith had passed safely through the ordeal and was already on the high road to recovery.

forced to pass, makes it imposible for his physicians to be positive so soon. From information at hand it is thought that the operation on Dr. Thompson was any other place in Washington.

"You make me think of a lot of solemn English specialist on stemach diseases. owls sitting in a row upon a twig," she Upon his arrival in London the unfortunate physician was advised > leave his hotel, and an operation was declared necessary in order to save the pa-tient's life. It is said that no less than seven hemorrhages occurred in a week. was very doubtful, and that dispatches Dr. McArdie said the patient's recovery eferring to the malady as an abscess of stomach were misleading. He pointed ut that abscesses generally developed when the patient was rounding the age f thirty-five. Dr. Thompson, he said, had been under his treatment for this disease > since June, 1905, and he pronounced it ancer of the stomach. Some time ago he was advised to try travel as a last resort, and had gotten as far as London, where he was stricken. Mrs. Thomas McArdle, wife of the Washington physician, and Mrs. Waddell, of West Chester, Pa., are on the ocean bound for England, but it will be imposbefore Saturday of this week. Dr. Thompson occupied an eminent position as a surgeon, being the author of two text-books on surgery. He graduated forty-five years ago from the University of Maryland, and began at once the prac tice of medicine. His skill soon won wide recognition, and he was honored by the University of Copenhagen in the form of

ARMY AND NAVY. Army Orders. placed upon retired list, with rank of brigadie

of Lieutenant Colonel JOHN J. CRIT-

TENDEN, Twentieth Infantry, announced.

First Licutenant CLARENCE DEEMS, jr., Artillery Corps, from Twenty-second Battery, Field st Lientenant EDWARD RODE, First Infantry

Michigan National Guard, to garrison school, Fort Wayne, Mich. Part Lieutenant WILLIAM A. DUNCAN, assistant surgeon, to Army Transport Service, San Francisco, relieving First Lieutenant CHARLES L. FOSTER, assistant surgeon, who will proceed to general hospital, Prosidio, relieving Captain WILLIAM R. EASTMAN. assistant surgeon, who will proceed to Fort Lawton, Wash., relieving Captain LOUIS T. HESS, assistant surgeon, who will proceed to Fort Porter, N. Y. First Lieutenants ALBERT G. LOVE and HAR-OLD W. LOVES assistant surgeons from San OLD W. JONES, assistant surgeons, from San Francisco to Philippines, signation of Second Lieutenant HALLY FOX, Seventh Infantry, accepted. first Licutenant CLAUDE S. FRIES, Seventh Infantry, to San Francisco, as aide-de-camp on staff of Brigadier General JOHN J. PERSHING.

esignation of First Lieutenant HAROLD E.
CLEARMAN, Philippine Scoats, accepted.

ptain W. H. H. SUTHERLAND, detached Dixie, home waiting orders.

ommander M. L. WOOD, to command Dixie, tymaster G. M. STACKHOUSE, detached Kentucky, to Missouri.

'aymaster G. P. DYER, detached Missouri, home waiting orders. Paymaster G. G. SEIBELS, to Kentucky.

Navy Orders.

ments of ressels have been reported to the Navy Department: ARRIVED. ovember 12-Prairie, at Santiago and Guantanamo; Helena, at Kiukiang; Paul Jones, at San Fran-Helena, at Nortons cisco; Stringham, at Nortons SAILED.

wember 19-Marcellus, from Hampton Roads for Boston. exember 12-Prairie, from Santiago for Guantana-

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS-The following m mo; Lebanou, from Lamberts Point to search for wreck; Blakely, from Annapolis for a cruise; Paul Jones, from Mare Island for San Francisco, ovember 13—West Virginia, Colorado, Maryland, and Pennsylvania, from Singapore for Manila. More Civil Service Examinations. The Civil Service Commission announced the following examinations yesterday: For seven watchmen at $720 a year, on

OF BUYING AN UPRIGHT

> For $88, Or $115, Or $135, Or $155, And Upward.

These are genuine, high grade

PIANO

first-class condition. Some of them are but a few months old and every one of them is ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED: Steinway Grand $300 Bradbury Upright $150 A. B. Chase Upright $300 Price & Teeple Upright . $155

Landscape Gardening

1328 F Street

-by experts. We furnish and set out all kinds of trees, plants and shrubbery. Estimates cheerfully furnished. THE WASHINGTON HEDGE AND NURSERY CO. M, STABLER, Mgr. Phone West 1285. 2434 Pa. Ave. N. W.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Norceut S. Henriguez, 29, Cristobal, Canal Zone, United States, and Martha M. Dedge, 24, Rev. J. Nackin.

Charles A. Peterson, 28, and Arabella L. G. Schwab, 25. Rev. J. D. Huddle. Leland C. Carr, 23, and Lillian A. Powell, 20, of Leesburg, Va. Rev. William F. Locke, William Harry Gaskins, 22, and Doris M. Gaskins, James E. Small, 39, of Anderson, Va., and Elbertie Harrington, 35. Rev. W. H. Ballenger. James L. Bratt, 25, of Baltimore, Md., and M. Elizabeth Unbaugh, 29. Rev. H. T. Stevenson. Joseph A. Conners, 28, and Mary K. Kenny, 26, Rev. T. P. O'Rourke. Alfred R. Glancy, 26, and Lenora Courts, 26. Rev. William F. Locke.
R. Bland Phelps, 33, and Ellen B. Halley, 24.
Rev. J. E. Litsinger.
Frank T. Linton, 22, and Nellie E. Lee, 22. Rev.

J. M. Gill.

A marriage license was issued yesterday at Rockville, Md., to Charles Thomas Havener, 27, and Effic Page, 29, both of Washington, D. C. COLORED.

Marcellus Beckwith, 33, and Sadie Lawrence, 24. Rev. Shelton Miller.
Samuel Chambers, 23, and Bessie Brown, 19. Rev.
J. B. McLaughlin.

DEATH RECORD.

Mary A. Smith, 710 6th st. sw., 59 years.
Grace A. Neal, rear of 613 L st. nw., 10 years.
Benjamin Woody, 1444 T st. nw., 44 years.
Benjamin Woody, 1444 T st. nw., 44 years.
Benjamin Woody, 1444 T st. nw., 45 years.
William Lanahan, 345 K st. sw., 76 years.
George Javins, 349 M st. sw., 25 years.
Hannah Ireland, 1002 B st. sw., 51 years.
John M. Williams, 661 8th st. ne., 51 years.
Thomas Tillman, 1303 Wiley's court, 22 years.
Catherine C. Fielding, 463 Fla. ave. nw., 67 years.
Catherine C. Fielding, 463 Fla. ave. nw., 67 years.
Libbie Wilson, 1323 4½ st. sw., 33 years.
Anton Staab, 710 3d st. ne., 74 years.
Claude Washington, 511 3d st. sw., 2 years.
Lapbe Washington, 511 3d st. sw., 2 years.
Lugene P. Brown, 2722 N st. nw., 32 years.
Leopold Lammfromm, Emerg. Hosp., 45 years.
Charlotte E. D. Williams, Portland flats, 64 years.
Mary B. Finley, 1928 I st. nw., 49 years.
Charlotte E. D. Williams, Portland flats, 64 years.
Mary B. Finley, 1928 I st. nw., 59 years.
George W. H. Stouch, U. S. A. Gen. Host., 64 yrs.
Catherine Mintrow, Govt. Hosp. Insane, 37 years.
Chester Jones, 929 T st. nw., 2 months,
James O. Braxton, 1252 Mst st. nw., 2 months,
Ephram Jackson, Bowen ave., Hillsdale, 2 months,
George E. Cooley, 1225 Morse st. ne., 5 months,
Margaret Patterson, 1131 12th st. nw., 3 days.
William Lee, Howard ave., Hillsdale, 5 days.